MEXICO'S FATE IN BALANCE TODAY

Pan-Americans Gather in New York to Decide Country's Future

LEADERS NOT PRESENT

Conferees Abandon Plan for Peace Conference of Mexican Leaders but Will Hear Representatives.

Washington, Sept. 18—The theater of diplomacy to secure peace and recognition of a responsible government in Mexico today veered from Washington to New York, where the third meeting of Pan-American peace conferees is scheduled for this afternoon.

It was learned on authority today that the conferees have abandoned plans for a peace conference of the Mexican leaders, as such. Instead, o joint conference of factional representatives is proposed.

It was reported here today that such a conference would be recommended by the Latin-American diplomats at today's New York conference.

As learned here the plan is for the conference to accept, with modification, Carranza's offer of a conference to discuss Mexico's "international problems" with a committee of the Pan-Americans.

Villa, Zapata and other leaders will also be invited to send delegates to if not immediate recongnition, would

By this means, the Pan-American representatives believe the whole question of Mexico's future and establishment of a provisional government, to be given the moral support if not mmediate recognition, would be threshed out.

More depredations of outlaw bands along the border were reported to the War Department today Bandits are raiding isolated American ranches. General Funston reports difficulty in trailing and identifying the outlaws.

RE-OPENING OF SURPRISE.

Many Improvements Made in Moving Picture Theatre.

Tonight marks the re-opening of the Surprise Theatre which was recently purchased by the management of the Richmond. A four part Mutual feature, "The Reward," featuring Miss Bessie Barriscale, supported by a strong company, will be presented.

Among the changes made is the increase in the seating capacity of the house, the same now having a capacity of over five hundred sitting. One of the large partitions between the Lobby and Auditorium has been entirely removed, also the stage, dressing rooms and the screen re-arranged. The house will be at all times partially lighted by an improved electric system without interference whatever with the pictures. The color scheme is old rose and white which prevails throughout the entire building.

The management promises an excellent program of pictures at all times including many features and tonight will, in all probability, witness the attendance of a very large crowd.

See program in conjunction with that of the Richmond elsewhere in this evening's edition of the Gazette.

YOM KIPPUR RITES TODAY

Most Solemn of Jewish Feasts is Being Observed.

The most solemn day in the Jewish calendar was begun yesterday evening with impressive services and musical program in the Jewish synagogue on north Washington street and will continue throughout today. This in the Jewish year is Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, and began at sunset yesterday, lasting until sunset today.

Celebrated with most sacred and impressive rites of the Jewish church, the day is one that all Jews keep strictly. It calls for abstinence from food for 24 hours, and all-day services in the synagogues today. The observance of the holy day is considered of double importance because of its falling on Saturday.

G. A. R. ARRANGEMENTS

Plans Completed for Encampment in Washington.

Final arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the Grand Army veterans at their 49th Annual Encampment in Washington during the week of September 27th have now been completed. To correct any impression which might be gained by the association of ideas, it should be stated that the Encampment is not to be a tented affair. The reunion will not be held under canvas as has been the case with these affairs in many cities. Instead, the Washington Citizens' Committee has provided, for the use of the veterans, a building adequately adapted for the purposes of the Encampment and having, with the exception of the Capitol itself, the largest ground floor space of any structure in the city. This building is the one in which the last Census was compiled and stands on First street, adjoining the Capitol Plaza. The main floor is divided into two mammoth auditoriums in one of which the big reception on Tuesday night and the regular business session of the Encampment will be held. The other has been set aside for camp-fires and the dog-watch of the naval veterans. On the floor above, there is a row of twenty or more rooms wherein the various corps and departments will have their individual headquarters throughout the reunion. Rooms have also been assigned to be used as headquarters by the military and semimilitary organizations allied with the Grand Army, so that all of the proceedings held in connection with the Encampment will be under one roof.

A feature of the arrangements never heretofore provided will be branch Post-Office established in the Encampment Building to which will be assigned by the Postmaster of Washington, a force of clerks who will handle all incoming and outgoing mail for the veterans, and all correspondence intended for the visitors should be addressed to the Encampment Headquarters. Rest-room, restaurant, hospital and other appointments and equipments necessary for the comfort and convenience of the old soldiers have been installed in the building.

The interior of the structure has been made to present a most attractive appearance by a force of decorators which the Washington Committee has brought from New York to give an artistic touch to the Encampment.

At this writing, the Weather Bureau officials, judging the future by the past have given it as their opinion that ideal climatic conditions will prevail in Washington during Encampment Week, and in view of all the preparations and arrangements which have been made, this is all that is needed to make the forthcoming Encampment, the most memorable one in the history of the Grand Army.

FOOTBALL SEASON NEAR

Football practice has been started at the Alexandria High School under the direction of Walter Nalls, captain of the high school football team several years ago before he graduated "Tady" Schafer is captain this year and he and the coach expect to get in some hard work shortly before the regular season begins. Manager Gaines is now at work arranging a schedule and will have a number of fast teams as high school opponents this year.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving rememberance of my dear sister, ROBERTA CROOK HILL, who departed this life suddenly two years ago tomorrow September 19th. 1913.

Oh, could I open wide the grave
And see thy face, once more
And hear thy voice, is all I crave,
As in the days of yore.

I did not know the pain you bore,
I did not see you die;
I only knew you went away
And never said good-bye.

If I had seen you at the last
And held your dying hand,
And heard the last sigh from your heart,
I would not feel so bad.

Her devoted Sister,
AGNES W. ADAM.

DEATH NOTICE

Departed this life, September 17, 1915 in her forty-ninth year, NANNIE BURWELL NORTON, daughter of the late Rev. George Hatley Norton, and Ann Burwell Norton. Funeral from her late residence, 616 Prince street, at four o'clock Sunday. Interment private.

TWO KILLED ON HOPEWELL ROAD

N. and W. Engine Strikes Big Jitney Bus, Injuring Powder Makers

SIX SENT TO HOSPITAL

Four Richmond Policemen are to Patrol Road Between Powder City and Petersburg.

Richmond, Sept. 18—Two men were killed and six injured, several probably fatally, late last night, when a Norfolk and Western engine backed into a Petersburg-Hopewell automobile truck at Cedar Level crossing three miles west of the powder plant town.

One of the dead men is John (Happy) Gould, of Chesterfield County, the driver of the automobile. The other is a sandy-haired youth, apparently about eighteen years old, who has no been identified.

The injured are:

Branch Eppes, of Dinwiddie County cut and bruised about the face, body and hips.

George Morrison, Petersburg, Injuerd about the face and hips.

E. L. Morris, Portsmouth, Va., face and head bruised and battered.

O. C. O'Neill, Benson, N. C., back and body hurt.

N. C. Hinkle, of North Carolina, hips and back wrenched.

J. C. Clarke, of North Carolina, face and head bruised.

Of the injured, Eppes, Morrison, O'Neill and Hinkle have probably been hurt internally, and one or two of them are regarded as in serious condition.

The injured were brought to Petersburg at 1:15 o'clock this morning on a relief train, which was hurried to the scene shortly before midnight, and all are now in the hospital in that city. Seven physicians from Petersburg, with a number of trained nurses went to Cedar Level in automobiles and on the relief train.

The collision occurred between 10 and 11 o'clock. The engine was backing toward Petersburg, having been used as a "pusher" to help a freight train over the grade just east of Cedar Level. Freight cars standing on the sidetrack at the crossing are said to have prevented the driver of the car from seeing the approaching locomotive. None of the occupants heard the engine coming.

The rear end of the tender caught the truck just as the front of the machine was midway of the main track. Gould's body was carried a short distance down the track before the engine was stopped and was badly mangled.

The unidentified youth, who also lost his life, was on the front seat and his body was almost cut in two. The bodies of the dead men were left at the crossing pending the arrival from Hopewell of Coroner Hargrave of Prince George County.

There were twelve men on the automobile truck, which was known as the "Republic" jitney. The four passengers who were seated toward the rear of the machine saw the approaching engine in time to jump and escape injury. All of the men, with the exception of Gould, are said to have been employees of the Du Pont Powder Plant, and were on their way to work. The identity of the sandy-haired young man may be established by the numbered brass check, which all employees of the plant carry.

The motor truck was split in two by the impact of the locomotive.

Policemen go to Hopewell.

Richmond, Sept. 18— Four officers of the Richmond Police Department will go on duty to-day to patrol the roads between Petersburg and Hopewell, according to a statement made last night at Prince-George Courthouse by Judge Jesse F. West, who has made requisition on Mayor Ainslie for the detail. Judge West said that the officers would appear in his court today and be sworn in as special policemen of Prince George County

Reports of another hold-up on the Petersburg-Hopewell road were received in Richmond last night. A man who was apparently a foreigner, stopped an automobile about 8 o'clock last night about halfway between Hopewell and Petersburg and called upon the passengers to give up their money.

In view of the numerous hold-ups during the last two weeks, the story of further activities on the part of highwaymen was received with credence in official circles, although no direct information was available. The Richmond policemen, when they are placed on patrol duty on the roads between the powder plant town and Petersburg, will be furnished with automobiles, and will cover both the river and upper roads between the two points, especially at night, They will be armed with Winchester shotguns, and will be prepared for any emergency.

T. L. Felts, one of the heads of the Baldwin-Felts Detective Agency, of Roanoke, and possibly W. G. Baldwin himself will be in Richmond today to confer with Governor Stuart, The exact purpose of the conference is not known, but it is understood, that it will have to do with further arrangements for augmenting the police force at Hopewell in a determined effort to bring about law and order in the community.

The grand jury at Prince George Courthouse yesterday reported that true bills had been found against two wholesale liquor houses of Richmond. Six indictments were returned against George Manisiotis, a Greek, charged with retailing liquor without a licence.

Manisiotis was an important witness for the Commonwealth in the case of former Police Lieutenant John Porter, now on trial for bribery in the court at Prince George.

Judge West announced yesterday that the court had revoked its former ruling, under which all persons indicted for selling liquor, who would plead guilty, would receive fines of $75, with no jail sentence. The judge stated that in the future the question of imposing the jail sentence would rest in the discretion of the court, in accordance with the recommendation of the Commonwealth's attorney.

BRITAIN FACING CABINET CRISIS

Combination of Members to Force Issue on Conscription Question

ELECTION IS PROBABLE

Issue is of Serious Moment—Position of Various Secretaries on Proposition Explained.

London, Sept. 18—A political sensation of the first magnitude has been caused by the publication in the London Daily News of particulars of an alleged plot whereby a minority of the most powerful members of the Cabinet have determined to force the issue of conscription in the Cabinet at an early date; next week is mentioned.

Failing an agreement on the subject, the Daily News declares, the Ministers in question intend to resign their offices, precipitating a Cabinet crisis which would be attended by great peril to the nation.

It is stated that the object of the conscripitionists is to force a general election on the issue of compulsory service.

Winston Spencer Churchill, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, addressing munition workers at Enfield yesterday, said:

"For the last four or five months the affairs of the Allies have not been as well as might be hoped. Three great military events of outstanding importance, while not disastrous, were disappointments.

"In France and Flanders a series of costly attacks was made on the German line, and, although ground was gained, the German lines were not pierced.

"In the great battle of the Dardanelles we gained invaluable ground, which led us forward but we have not the vantage point at which we aimed.

"Then came the invasion of Russia by the Austro-Germans in enormous strength, and the retreat of our gallant Allies, whose army, I am glad to say, is intact.

"While Russia is recovering her lost strength a new and unmistakable burden has fallen upon us. The situation is very serious.

"It is in our power to carry the war to a successful conclusion, but we can do it only if we utilize the whole strength of our national capacity."

The gulf which separates the advocates of compulsory service and of the voluntary system is becoming wider.

The conscriptionist members of the Cabinet are Lord Curzon, Lord Lansdowne, Lloyd-George, Winston Churchill, Bonar Law, Austen Chamberlian, Lord Selborne and Sir Edward Carson.

Lord Kitchener is as yet uncommitted either way. Bonar Law, Lord Long and Austen Chamberlain were not inclined a short time ago, at any rate to press compulsion if it meant a split in the Government. It may be added that Lord Curzon is one of its strongest advocates.

Lloyd-George is believed to favor a general election. Churchill probably will be found to be more in favor of a referendum. Lord Lansdowne is rumored to have weakened in his advocacy of late. But these qualifications as to individual attitudes are details. A conscriptionist Minister is already behind the scenes busy canvassing his friends in view of the coming crisis in the Cabinet.

FINDS NEW ARCTIC LAND

Stefansson, The Canadian Explorer, Thought Dead, Turns up.

Nome, Alaska, Sept. 18—Vilhjalmar Stefansson, the Canadian explorer, who was believed lost in the Arctics, not only is alive and well, but has discovered a new land in the North and accomplished practically every purpose for which his hazardous journey was undertaken, according to word brought here by the power schooner Ruby, which arrived Thursday from Herschel Island. Stefansson, with two companions, Storker Storkerson and Ole Anderson, set out from Martin Point, Alaska, March 22, 1914, over the frozen Polar Ocean to search for supposed new lands in the Beaufort Sea.

Capt. S. F. Cottle, master of the Ruby, says that Stefansson is now on Banks Land, east of the Mackenzie, outfitting for continuance of the explorations to the westward to ascertain the full extent of the new land he has discovered southwest of Prince Patrick's Land. Stefansson discovered a continuance of the Continental shelf several degress west of Banks Land and even determined its southern limits, but was unable to continue his explorations to the North and West.

FORD PLANS CHEAP SUB

Auto Maker Will Tell Daniels Detail of Boat Next Week

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 18 —Henry Ford has a plan for new submarines, one-fourth the size of those now used, which he will present to Secretary of the Navy Daniels when he confers with him in Washington next week. The new submarines, he believes, will prove such a staggering blow to high-cost naval armament that it will completely discourage the promoters of costly Dreadnoughts and will eventually be a great power for peace.

"It would be no trick at all to produce a submarine equipped with a gasoline engine for its entire motive power which could sail anywhere under the sea carrying a pill at the end of a pole powerful enough to blow the mightiest battleship ever built into a wreck of junk", said Mr Ford today.

"The new submarine would be one-fourth the size of the present submarine.

"These submarines can be built at such a slight cost that all the incentive for greedy armament makers will be taken away from them. They will cost only a fraction of what the present submarines cost and only a fraction of 1 per cent of the $15,000,000 Dreadnoughts."

FUSIONISTS ARE RESTRAINED

Norfolk County Muddle In Courts —Straightouts Are Victorious.

Norfolk, Sept. 18—Judge James L. McLemore, of the Second Circuit, sitting for Judge C. W. Coleman, of the First Circuit, which is Norfolk county, had issued an injunction restraining the Norfolk County Democratic Committee from holding a primary on September 28th.

The State Democratic chairma nacting with the warring factions, ordered a primary to be held, thus giving the right to the electoral board, named by Judge Coleman, to name the judges.

The County Democratic Committee, which is the fusion organization, refused to accept that and made arrangements to name the judges and other officers. The primary will be held under the direction of the officers named by the electoral board.

The County Democratic Committee has not been elected since the straight outs defeated the fusionists two years ago, electing members of the Legislature, hence that committee is in control. The election of a new committee is one of the issues involved in the present controversy.

The straightouts have been making the fight for years, and they have at last won. There are this time two candidates for the State Senate—W. C. Corbitt, who is seeking re-election, and H. L. Alexander, the candidate of the fusion element.

It is understood to be the intention of Mr. Alexander to go to the courts and seek to restrain the straightouts from holding a primary, and thus to throw the control into the election of November next, at which time the Republican and negro's will vote for Alexander, according to the claims of the straightouts.

VILNA AS PRIZE OF GREAT ARMIES

Mighty Forces Clash in Violent Struggle for Important City

OFFICIAL REPORTS

Germans Attack in Force East of City, Aiming to Pierce Russian Line—Railroad at Stake.

Petrograd, Sept. 18—A violent battle for Vilna has begun. The Germans are attacking in great force east of the city. Several enemy detachments have reached the Novo Vileisk-Molodechno railway, and are attempting to pierce the Russian lines.

The official statement from the war office early today emphasized the fact that the fighting around Vilna is the greatest struggle now going on along the Baltic-Galicia battle line.

It is not improbable that the Czar will order the evacuation of the city within a few days if the enemy's attacks threaten the envelopment of the armies in that region.

German successes in this fighting and in the region southeast of Orany are offset by Russian victories in the southeast. On a front extending from the region of Deranzo to Trembowla, the troops of General Ivanoff have captured about 3,500 prisoners and have occupied three villages, the Austro-Germans at some points fleeing in disorder.

The official statement reporting the beginning of violent fighting on the left bank of the Villja, near Vilna, adds significantly that the battle "is likely to develop ere long between the railway districts of Vilna, Novosientsiany, Molodechno, and Vileika." In the region of Lakes Medziol, Naroch, and Swir, cavalry fighting is occurring on a wide front.

Southeast of Oranj, the German attempts to advance on the Vilna-Lida railway have been repulsed with heavy enemy losses. It is admitted, however, that the enemy occupied the village of Radjouny, south of Datishki, after stubborn fighting Another German detachment east of Grodno crossed the Shtshara river and occupied the village of Shara.

"In renewed fighting for the possession of Derazno, we drove the enemy from the outskirts," said the official statement. "Enemy forces retreated upon the village of Ruda Krasnovie, whch was stormed and captured by Russian troops, who took 2,000 prisoners and four Maxims.

"Near the frontier village of Gontowa. we counter-attacked successfully taking twelve officers, 540 men, and three Maxims, In the Strya river region, north of Buczacz, we captured fourteen officers and 800 men. Northeast of Buczacz we occupied the village of Jancwka and Pielawa, the enemy fleeing in disorder."

The German cavalry is driving for the railway between Molodechno and Polotsk.

This railroad parallels the Vilna-Dvinsk line, about seenty-five miles eastward. The two railways running south and southeast from Vilna are still held by the Russians, affording means of withdrawing the forces at Vilna, should it become necessary.

HEAT SPELL BROKEN

More Cooling Conditions Prevailed Last Night.

The mercury tumbled down the tube somewhat last night due to the wind which came out of the north late yesterday afternoon. There were only a few drops of rain here although there was a heavy shower in Washington shortly before eight o'clock and rain is reported throughout the east.

The weather man thinks that the heat spell has at last been broken and promises cooler weather for tonight and tomorrow.

LIPSCOMB TO FIGHT ON

Threatens to Take Back Taxes Question To Courts For Settlement

Despite the announcement of the state board of tax review that they had recommended that examiners of records and commissioners of revenue to devote their time securing the correct returns of taxes for 1915 and ignore omitted taxes for past years, and the action of the local board of tax review in agreeing to abide by the recommendation of the state board, W. N. Lipscomb, of Manassas, examiner of records for this judicial district, will carry his fight to secure payment of back taxes to the courts.

Announcement to this effect is made in a letter just received by Robinson Moncure, chairman of the local board of review, from Mr. Lipscomb. In this letter the latter states that he hopes that the local board will reconsider its position in reference to the omitted taxes and that if they do not he will take legal steps for the removal of the board or will institute mandamus proceedings to compel the board to act. Mr. Lipscomb says that he will submit to the local board his complete report which will show the omitted property and incomes subject to taxation.

Chairman Moncure has replied to Mr. Lipscomb stating that the board will adhere to its former action in the matter and advising him that he may proceed as he deems best.

GETS FIVE YEARS IN PEN

Rozier Harrison Convicted of Hideous Crime—Thief Gets Year

Rozier Harrison, a white laborer of Bailey's Cross Roads, was convicted at the special term of the Circuit Court of Alexandria County, Thursday of ruining the life of Ethel Sherley of Arlington. He was proved to have taken advantage of the inexperience of the girl who is under the age of consent and she is soon to become a mother.

Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey, asked Judge Thornton to hold court at this time to try this case lest the girl might not be able to appear in October. He put the facts strongly before the jury. Chas. T. Jesse conducted the defense.

The jury was out for sometime and it is reported one or two were ready to send Harrison to the electric chair, a possible sentence under the Virginia law; but the man was given five years in the penitentiary. It is stated that one juror held out for more than an hour insisting on a light punishment. Wm. Gaines, colored, of Alexandria, entered a plea of guilty on a charge of grand larceny. A jail sentence was asked for him by Harry Thomas, his attorney, but Capt. Mackey insisted on a penitentiary term. Gaines was charged with larceny of a watch pistol and other articles which were stolen some time ago from the home of Mrs. Margaret Bredget at Barcroft.

MISS NORTON'S FUNERAL

Services to Take Place Tomorrow Afternoon From Residence

Funeral services for Miss Nannie Norton, who died yesterday at Catonsville, Mad., will be held from her late residence, 616 Prince street, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, will officiate.

News of the death of Miss Norton, which reached here yesterday afternoon, was a great shock to her many friends in Alexandria and throughout Virginia. Miss Norton was an earnest worker in all religious movements and especially will St. Paul's Church and Sunday school feel the loss of her influence and inspiration, as there she had been a faithful worker, for many years devoting much time to the uplifting, and training of the little scholars falling under her tutelage, and where her example to them is truly expressed in the words of the familiar hymn she often sang with them; "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

She was prominent in the social world of Virginia and her sunny disposition and genial personality will be a sweet memory to the many who grieve her loss.

ALUMNI MEETS

Amendments Made to Constitution at Meeting of Old High School Students.

At a called meeting of the Alexandria High School alumni association held Thursday night in the Lee school building on Prince street, the constitution recently drawn up by a committee appointed for the purpose and adopted by the organization was amended and other changes made in the the regulations of the alumni body. One of the questions settled at the meeting was that of dues.

A corrsection should be made to an article that appeared in yesterday's Gazette. Charles Sulliyan should have been mentioned as leaving yesterday morning for the University of Virginia with John Wenzel.

Varsity Fifty-five Is the Young Man's Suit.
Varsity Six Hundred Is the Young Man's Overcoat.

You will find both the Suits and the Overcoats in several striking variations that appeal to young men everywhere—college, high school, business or wherever they may be engaged.

Features of the Varsity-five Suits are one-link button coat, two and three-button coats, some of the latter with the center button a link effect; five-button vests, with the lower button left unfastened on some; double breasted soats and vests; one-piece backs in coats; 29 and 30 inch lengths. Trousers continue slender and fitting.

You will see these suits in handsome plaids; checks, stripes—many different kinds, with a tendency to light colors. Glen Urquharts and Tartans are highly favored.

SUITS, $12.50 to $35.00. OVERCOATS, $12.50 to $50.00.

CHURCH AND THE STATE

In this great republic of ours there is not, and never will be, any close relations between the church and the government. Such a relation once so prevalent in Europe, and still existing in a modified form in some of the countries of the Old World, is out of tune with American ideas of what the state should be, so antagonistic to the great principles upon which this government is founded, that even the suggestion of a privileged church that should have a voice in the management of the country's affairs would arouse the indigation and the protest of every true American. He demands that church and state shall be kept separate and distinct, so far apart, indeed, that there can never be even a suspicion of union between them. Nations of Europe that have fallen from their high estate have proven the danger of such union, the menace to the welfare of the country and to the progress of the development.

While in this land the two are kept as far apart as the poles, and will so remain, this separation cannot relieve the church of its obligations to the state, of its duty, as a strong force in every community, to uphold the government, to use all its influence and all its power to make the people loyal and true to that government, to hold up to them the highest ideals of citizenship, to preach and teach an unselfish patriotism which shall never wane. The church that fails in this duty, that ignores this obligation, that finds fault with the government under which it lives, is a church unworthy of its mission, a church that has no right to expect, no right even to seek, the approval of any community. Fortunately for this country, such a church is hard to find. A vast majority of the religious denominations in this country, no matter how far apart they may be separated on questions of creed, stand as a unit in their loyalty to the government and in their unfailing support of it.

These are days when the church should give abundant proof of such loyalty. This government is now confronted with the hardest problems that have arisen for years, with problems on the settlement of which the prosperity, the happiness, even the lives of the citizens depend. In such a crisis has the church no duty to perform? Is it not called upon to make such use of the mighty and God-given power as to aid in the best solution of those problems? Is it not the duty of every minister of the gospel, whether he preaches in a gorgeous cathedral or in a wayside church in the country, to speak earnestly to his people, to point out to them their obligation, to urge them to prove their right to American citizenship by upholding the hands of the President, by approving, not criticising every act of his, every step taken to maintain the country's high position among the nations of the world? The honor of the American people is at stake in this crisis, and in defense of that honor the church must play its part and play it well.

MONEY WILL NOT LEAVE THIS COUNTRY.

It was to be expected that Mr. Bryan would oppose the proposed loan to England and France. Nothing that he could do or say could possibly astonish any person. It will be noticed that among public men he has few sympathizers with his opinions. Senator J. Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, is an exception. Senator Lewis, says that "if the billion sought does go to the foreign bankers, one-half of all the available cash for America is taken from the American people." He adds:

"The effect of this foreign loan would be to take $1,000,000,000 from our people of their own money and lend it to nations who are spending $15,000,000 a day. In sixty days all of the money will be spent by the foreign nations and we will have in its place securities of two or three countries issued upon a credit already taxed beyond its resources and we will have no way left by law to collect the collateral."

Senator Lewis, cannot be sincere in such a statement.

The money does not go to "foreign bankers." Not one dollar of it is going out of the country. The proposed loan is not so much a loan as it is a credit for the establishment of something like stable business relations. Millions upon millions—Senator Lewis says two billions—are lying idle. Along comes England and France with a proposition to borrow a billion or half a billion dollars at good rates of interest—to employ idle money. And for what purpose? To pay out again in this country to sellers of all sorts of products desired on the other side.

It is a pure business proposition. And an excellent one. No doubt the bankers would quite as willing to lend to Germany or Austria on the same terms.

Germany Solvent Till 1920

No modern state would find difficulty in levying taxes that take for public purposes fifteen per cent. of the private income of its citizens. No state in the world's history has succeded in taking so much as thirty per cent., and it is very doubtful that even German efficiency could extract a portion approaching this limit.

Apart from the productive revenues of the Imperial government and the states—against which we have already set an appropriate share of the public debt—two billion and a half may be regarded as the maximum amount that can be raised by Empire and states in time of peace. The inevitable current expenditures, civil and military, will absorb a billion and more. With all due allowance for underestimation of such requirements and for overestimation of total revenues, we may safely claim a possible billion of revenues for the service of the debt. On a six per cent, basis, a billion of revenue would provide for a debt principal of sixteen and two-thirds billions. Germany can by this reckoning carry on the war until the autumn of 1920 without becoming actually insolvent. The New Republic.

DRYDOCK FIGHT ON AGAIN

Norfolk-Portsmouth Delegation Calls on Daniels

The fight for the proposed $3,000,000 naval drydock between Norfolk and Philadelphia is on again. Yesterday a large delegation of Norfolk-Portsmouth business men, headed by Senator Martin and Swanson, and Representative Holland. called at the Navy Department and urged Secretary Daniels to support Norfolk in his annual report for the drydock.

Secretary Daniels recommended Norfolk a year ago, and he hinted to the delegation that he would again do so this year. On account of the opposition of Philadelphia and the business depression, Congress last year passed by the drydock appropriation. It is believed that funds will be made available to start work next winter if the question as to which city should have the drydock can be settled.

Construction of the drydock is now regarded as more important than ever on account of the preparations for a stronger navy. In working out plans for national efense, War Department experts believe the Chesapeake Bay should be developed as the "American Kiel," guarded and protected by the most powerful fortress that can be erected at Cape Henry.

MEXICANS SHOT ON BORDER

Twenty-five Carranzista Soldiers Thought to Have Been Killed in New Battle.

Brownsville, Tex., Sept. 18— Beween twenty and twenty-five Carranzista soldiers are believed to have been killed today by American troops in two battles along the Rio Grande There were no American casualties.

Both battles were started by the Carranzists, who fired on American troops. One took place before Matamoras, the Mexican town across the Rio Grande, three miles from here, and the other at Los Ebanos, fifty miles north and west of Brownsville.

As a result of the attacks by Carranzistas on American troops serious international complications are feared.

RUBBER SOLED SHOES SAVE

Youngster Wearing Them Only Dazed When Lightning Finds Him

Sullivan, Ind, Sept. 18—A pair of rubber-soled tennis shoes saved the life of 9-year-old Clyde McInnes, son of J. D. McInnes, today when lightning struck an iron stove poker he held in his hands. The boy had stopped in the grocery in North Sourt street to wait until the storm subsided. Picking up a poker he playfully swung it about in his hands. A bolt of lightning struck it, hurling it to the opposite side of the room, burning the sleeve from his shirt and throwing him to the floor. He was somewhat dazed, but unhurt.

NEWS OF THE DAY

All of the F type of submarines yesterday were ordered out of commission by Secretary of the Navy Daniels. The reason assigned is that they are unsafe.

After a long discussion, the two houses of the Chilean congress in joint session proclaimed Juan Luis San Fuentes the future president of the republic. President-elect Fuentes, who was chosen for the office at an election last May, will assume the presidency on December 25 next.

Announcement was made yesterday by Secretary of State Lansing that work has been completed on the note to Great Britain dealing with British interference with American trade to neutral countries. The note is an elaborate document, having been in course of preparation for many weeks.

Seven-year-old Reuben Pasis, of 320 Sixteenth street southeast, was killed yesterday afternoon and Herman Staffel, 11 years old, of 322 Sixteenth street southeast, suffered severe bruises and shock when the two lads were caught by the caving in of a 15 foot sandbank at Nineteenth and B streets southeast, Washington, where they were playing with six other boys.

Joseph Benson Foraker, former United States senator, is at Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, Ohio ,in a serious condition as a result of a prostatic malady. It has been decided that an operation is necessary to save his life, but on account of his weakened condition he will not be placed under the knife for at least a week. He cannot hope for a complete recovery without the operation.

Formal recognition has been accorded by the United States to the new government in Haiti, headed by President D'Artiguonave. Charge Davis of the American legation at Port au Prince, cabled the State Department late yesterday that he had conveyed notice of recognition to the Haitian Government at 8 o'clock Thursday night. At the same time Rear Admiral Caperton, commanding the naval expeditionary forces on the island, reported to the Navy Department that he had exchanged national salutes with the Port au Prince shore batteries and called with his staff upon President D' Artiguonave.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Former Judge John R. Moss, died at Buckingham Wednesday night. At one time he was Commonwealth's Attorney and Judge of the old county court of Buckingham county. He had also represented his county in the General Assembly.

Dr. S. L. Scott, who was elected Health Officer of Fredericksburg, for the term beginning September 15, sent a letter to the City Council Thursday night declining to accept the position. Dr. C. Mason Smith, former Health Officer, was elected in his place.

The destruction by fire a week ago of the grain elevator at Newport News, Va., has resulted in steamers there to load being diverted to other ports. The British steamships Wilberforce and Eslwick Tower, which were under charter to load at the Virginia port, reached Baltimore yesterday to take on cargoes. Captain Dowell, of the Elswick Tower, stated that there were eight ships at Newport News waiting to take on cargoes of grain.

Announcement is made by officials of the institutions that a consolidation would take place of the National Valley Bank and Augusta National Bank of Staunton. Both banks appointed committees from directors to arrange details. The Valley National is fifty years old, and has resources og $1,700,000. The Augusta National is forty years old, and has resources at $700,00. The consolidated bank will have resources of nearly $3,000,000, and will be the strongest bank in Virginia outside of those of Richmond and Norfolk.

Luray has reversed itself on its city manager form of government, which was instituted less than one month ago. Section 16 of the town's charter was used by Councilmen Mason and Renalds to upset the recent action of the town council. The section provided that no one should vote in any matter before the Council when his personal interests were involved. This is alleged to have been done when the office of town manager was created, the Councilman appointed to that office having introduced the vote for the resolution that combined the offices of Recorder, Street Commissioner and Superintendent of the Water System under one head.

REMAINS TAKEN TO GEORGIA

Funeral Services for Edward E. Aldred President of Alexandria County Service Assn.

The remains of Edward E. Aldred, president of the Alexandria County Service Assn., were taken to Atlanta, Ga., yesterday afternoon for interment there. As stated in the Gazette Mr. Aldred died at his home in Clarendon at an early hour Thursday morning, death being due to acute Bright's disease. Mr. Aldred was born in Glascock County, Ga., December 19, 1866, and resided in Georgia until about 10 years ago, when he came to Washington to accept a position in the Treasury Department. Mrs. Aldred, who prior to her marriage was Miss Mary Hagerman, died about six months ago and since that time Mr. Aldred's health has gradually failed. In early June he was persuaded to go to Walter Reed Army Hospital, but three weeks ago, realizing he could not recover he persuaded his family bring him home to spend his last days.

Mr. Aldred was president of the Alexandria County Service Association and it was largely through his efforts that the jitney lines were established between Ballston and Washington.

For 15 years Mr. Aldred was a captain in the Georgia militia, and before coming to Washington held a responsible position at the Federal prison at Atlanta.

PROF. THAYER A SUICIDE

Body of the Dean of Harvard Law School Found in River.

Boston, Sept. 18—The body of Prof. Ezra Ripley Thayer, dean of the Harvard Law School, was found floating in the Charles River yesterday. He had been missing two days. Medical Examiner McGrath said it was a case of suicide.

Dean Thayer, who was born at Milton, N. H., in 1866, had been under the care of a physician for some time. Because of ill-health he had been obliged to give up some of his lectures at the law school.

TWO MILLION PRISONERS

Germans Also Capture Thousands of Guns From Russians.

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 18—The number of Russians taken prisoner since May 1 by the Austrians and Germans is reckoned by La Suisse at 2,571,750. It is stated that 6,000 guns and 4,000 machine guns have been captured. The newspaper states that these figures have been compiled from official bulletins issued at Berlin and Vienna.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess", says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good.

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

MUST FIGHT FOR TAXES

Attorney For Miss Marie Marshall Will Resist Payment

Richmond, Sept. 17—J. Frederick Kernochan, of New York, committee for Miss Marie Marshall, an inmate of the State Hospital at Williamsburg will not come across voluntarily for omitted taxes assessed by the examiner of records against Miss Marshall.

Mr. Sidney Smith, examiner for Williamsburg, in an idle moment ran across what looked good to him, and after probing a bit he discovered that though Miss Marshall has an income of close to $300,000 a year, she is no and has not, been paying taxes on but a very small amount.

Mr. Kernochan has made affidavit in New York that Miss Marshall is not a resident of that State. So far as assements for taxation are concerned, it is shown that Miss Marshall is not a resident of Virginia. She owns not less than $3,000,000 in real estate and intangible property. Mr Kernochan says that the property belonging to Miss Marshall in New York State is non-taxable. He makes it plain that there will be no payment so long as he can prevent; that he will go to all the courts and fight to the last ditch. He avers that there has been no attempt to evade any taxes whatever.

The chances are that Mr. Kernochan will have to make the fight, for in addition to Examiner Smith there are two other Williamsburg lawyers and the Attorney General of Virginia, all of whom are of one mind in the transaction, and they have acted only after full and free consideration of the subject in every instance.

Williamsburg claims to be due more than $500,000 in back taxes, and the State of Virginia has a claim that warrants the making of a fight through all the courts.

NEW RAILWAY ORGANIZED

Warner Moore Heads Richmond, Rappahannock And Northern

Richmond, Va., Sept. 18—The organization of the Richmond, Rappahannock and Northern Railroad, known locally as the West Point-Urbanna Road, was perfected here yesterday by the election of Warner Moore, Richmond, president; Herbert L. Lewis, West Point, vice-president; Richard H. Bruce, Richmond, treasurer, and James Mullin, Richmond, secretary.

The sale of $100,000 in preferred stock and $50,000 in common stock the preferred to pay 7 per cent., was authorized and $25,000 was sold within a few minutes, most of the purchasers being residents of the section through which the new road will pass. No more stock will be sold until after the survey is completed which will be early next week.

ADMITS BANK THEFT

Ex-Mayor of Ansonia Pleads Guilty Run Continues.

Ansonia, Ct., Sept. 18 — Former Mayor Franklin Burton pleaded guilty in the City Court to a charge of embezzling $36,000 of the funds of the Savings Bank of Ansonia, of which he was treasurer. He was held for trial in the Superior Court, his bond of $10,000 being furnished by William A. Nelson, a director of the bank.

Burton was arrested Thursday night after he had confessed the defalcation to State Bank Commissioner E. J. Sturges.

A crowd of several hundred gathered near the bank this morning, but there was no disorder, in contrast to the riotous scenes of last night. Extra police were on guard, however. Depositors were admitted to the bank one by one and their pass books were redeemed at full value. The directors stated today that all claims against the institution would be met and that the surplus of $80,000 will more than cover any shortage.

DECLARES HIS INNOCENCE

New York, Sept 18—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, last night declared his innocence of having done anything unneutral or compromising in the Archibald case by stating explicitly that he had given "no papers of any kind" into Archibald's keeping. He said, farther more, that if any papers signed by him were reported found among the Archibald docments they were forged. forged.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
OFFICE OF
CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Proposed amendments to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1914 and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 46, Article IV, of the Constitution.

Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section forty-six, article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 46. The General Assembly shall meet once in two years, on the second Wednesday in January, next succeeding the election of the members of the House of Delegates and not oftener, unless convened in the manner prescribed by this Constitution. No session of the General Assembly, after the first under this Constitution, shall continue longer than sixty days; but with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Except for the first session held under this Constitution, members shall be allowed a salary for not exceeding thirty days at any regular session, and for not exceeding thirty days at any extra session. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place nor for more than three days. A majority of the members elected to each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall have power to compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalty as each house may prescribe.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 46. The General Assembly shall meet once in two years, on the second Wednesday in January, next succeeding the election of the members of the House of Delegates, and not oftener, unless convened in the manner prescribed by this Constitution. No session of the General Assembly shall continue longer than ninety days, except that with the concurrence of three-fifths of the members elected to each house, the session may be extended for a period not exceeding thirty days. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn to another place nor for more than three days. A majority of the members elected to each house shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and shall have power to compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalty as each house may prescribe.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 50 of Article IV of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment, and certifying the same to the next General Assembly.

1. Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the General Assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the House of Delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section fifty of article four of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section fifty, article four, which is in the following words:

Sec. 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house, to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been—

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;

(b) Printed by the house in which it originated, prior to its passage therein;

(c) Read at length on three different calendar days in each house, and unless,

(d) A yea and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the affirmative.

And only in the manner required in sub-division (d) of this section shall an amendment to a bill by one house be concurred in by the other, or a conference report be adopted by either house, or either house discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and consider the same as if reported; provided, that the printing and reading, or either, required in sub-division (b and c) of this section, may be dispensed with in a bill to codify the laws of the State, and in any case of emergency by a vote of four-fifths of the members voting in each house taken by the yeas and nays, the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal; provided further that no bill which creates or establishes a new office, or which creates, continues or revives a debt or charge, or makes, continues or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, or discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of the State, or which imposes, continues or revives a tax, shall be passed except by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the members elected to each house, the vote to be by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal. Every law imposing, continuing or reviving a tax shall specifically state such tax, and no law shall be construed as so stating such tax, which requires a reference to any other law or any other tax. The presiding officer of each house shall, in the presence of the house over which he presides, sign every bill which has been passed by both houses and duly enrolled. Immediately before this is done, all other business being suspended, the title of the bill shall be publicly read. The fact of the signing shall be entered on the journal.
